The Rich Fool Luke 12:13–21

May 2, 2021

CONNECT

1. If you won the lottery, what would you want to do with it?

CELEBRATE

2. Read Luke 12:13–15. Look at the set-up to the parable. What does the man from the crowd think Jesus' teaching is talking about? How does Jesus respond and what does he command him to do?
3. Read Luke 12:16–21. Who does the rich man talk to for counsel or wisdom as he plans for the future? Who doesn't he consult?
4. Observe all the places where the rich man says "I", "me" or "my". What does this indicate? How does this square with Psalm 24:1?
5. How can you tell the difference in your own life between wise planning (good stewardship) and idolatry (finding your identity or treasure in something other than Jesus)?
6. What helps you keep your heart tender to Jesus and what He treasures instead of letting the cares and riches and pleasures of life take priority (Luke 8:14)?
7. Read Luke 12:19–20 and James 4:13–15. Why is it unwise to presume upon tomorrow?
8. Whether or not you feel like you have an overabundance, how much do you think about being a good steward of what God has entrusted to you? How can you cultivate generosity with what you do have?
9. What ought disciples be like according to Luke 12:21, 30–31? What does that actually look like?

CONTRIBUTE

10. Pray for hearts and lives that are rich toward God. This week, are there ways you can use what God has entrusted to you to bless people who aren't yet in God's kingdom?
