THE HERO WE IMITATE

ICE-BREAKER

1. Did you ever want to grow up to be like someone else—perhaps a sports star, a celebrity or even someone close to you? Share about your childhood hero.

GOING DEEPER

2. Matthew 28:18–20 is called “the great commission.” How often do you think about these verses? How relevant do you think they are to you and your life?
3. John 15:10 tells us obedience to Christ’s commands is vital to remaining in God’s love. Does the thought of not remaining in God’s love cause you to consider more closely what the commands of Jesus are and obey them?
4. Read John 15:12. One of Jesus’ most repeated commands is to love one another as he has loved us. He repeats this in verses 9 and 17. Do you find this command to be one of the hardest to keep?
5. The baptism of Jesus was a pivotal event where He was filled with the Holy Spirit and empowered to begin His ministry. What active part does the Holy Spirit play in your everyday spiritual life and imitation of Christ?
6. Luke 4:14–15 is an amazing verse that highlights Christ’s reliance on the power of the Holy Spirit to do what He did. What difference might it have made had he not been obedient to be baptized?
7. In Matthew 28:18–20 Jesus commands us to “make disciples” by “teaching them to obey all He has commanded.” What difference is there between just teaching disciples, or teaching them to obey?
8. New Hope is striving to be a disciple-making, great commission church. In what ways could we make this command of Jesus a priority in our lives?

ACTION

9. How can we help each other imitate Jesus and be able to say, “If you have seen me, you have seen Jesus.”
10. What first steps can we make toward loving each other and those around us as Jesus loved us?
11. Think of those around you in your community who you could disciple to faith in Christ rather than just evangelize them. What would that look like?
