DISCUSSION GUIDE

April 3, 2022

DIFFERENT Galatians 6:11–18

CONNECT

1. This week we celebrated baptism as part of our worship gathering.
 - What's the meaning and significance of baptism?
- Have you been baptized? If yes, when? Describe why you did so. If not, what holds you back?

GOING DEEPER

2. Take a look at Galatians 5:6 and 6:15. In these verses, the Apostle Paul makes clear that the Jewish tradition of circumcision didn't count for anything—that it is no basis for boasting and has no power to transform the heart. What are some current traditions or outward expressions that modern Christians tend to lean on as a basis for their standing before God and others?
3. Look again at how the Apostle Paul counters this false belief in verse 15. How does someone become a new creation?
4. Contrast what the false teachers (vs 12–13) and the Apostle Paul (v 14) boasted in. Practically speaking, what does it mean to boast only in the cross of Jesus Christ?
5. Read 2 Corinthians 5:17–20 and note how being a new creation transforms our purpose and ambitions. Give an honest assessment of the degree to which those purposes mentioned in verses 18–20 are lived out by you.

ACTION

6. How would you articulate the main argument/teaching of the book of Galatians?
7. What has stood out to you from our Galatians series? How has God challenged you? In what ways is God calling you to change the way you think, believe or live?
