DISCUSSION GUIDE

THE DOOR John 10:7-9

CONNECT

1. Why is the door the most critical part of the house?

GOING DEEPER

2. Read John 10:7-9. Think about what Jesus means by saying "I am the door." What's the first thing that jumps to your mind about what Jesus might be saying? Share your answers around the group.
3. Read John 10:9. Is Jesus' invitation public or private? Who can come?
4. If someone wants to be saved, where do they have to go? Who controls who enters and finds pasture? What does this say about who Jesus is?
5. Read John 10:7-9 again. What three things does Jesus provide for the sheep?
6. Imagine sheep in a pen without a door. What do the sheep lose by not having a door? What do they gain by having one? How does Jesus provide that to us?
7. Read Psalm 23. What comparisons do you see between Psalm 23 and John 10:7-9? Jesus and His audience all knew this Psalm. What connections do you suppose Jesus wanted His audience to make?

ACTION

8. What would it look like for you to walk someone up to the door? How does the idea of Jesus as the only "door" affect the way you share the gospel?
