THE GOOD SHEPHERD John 10:11–16

CONNECT

1. What does a shepherd do and why might it have important spiritual meaning?

GOING DEEPER

2. Shepherding sheep is a common theme in the Bible. There are both literal and metaphorical pieces to this—caring for sheep and caring for people. See Psalm 78:70–72 for insight. In what ways can the responsibilities of a shepherd apply toward both?
3. Consider Ezekiel 34:1–10. What is being addressed in the passage? How might this apply to leaders today, even churches? What is revealed about God's heart? See Zechariah 11:17 for more insight.
4. Read Ezekiel 34:11–15. Based on what Jesus says of Himself in John 10:11–16, how does the vision of Ezekiel 34:11–15 find fulfillment in Jesus? Also note 1 Peter 5:4 and Hebrews 13:20–21.
5. John 10:11 & 15 allude to Jesus' death on a cross. Why is Jesus determined to sacrifice His life? See Hebrews 12:2 and Romans 5:6–9. How might this differ from the average shepherd?
6. See Jesus' words in John 10:16. What do these words mean? How might this relate to what the Apostle Paul wrote in Ephesians 2:11–22. What are practical implications and ramifications for this "one flock" (John 10:16)? How about for New Hope Church?

ACTION

7. When you are in painful seasons, how do the promise of Isaiah 40:11 prove helpful to you?
8. How could you share the gospel with a friend using Psalm 23:1–3 as your foundation?
