THE GOOD SHEPHERD  John 10:11–16

CONNECT
1. What does a shepherd do and why might it have important spiritual meaning?

GOING DEEPER
2. Shepherding sheep is a common theme in the Bible. There are both literal and metaphorical pieces to this—caring for sheep and caring for people. See Psalm 78:70–72 for insight. In what ways can the responsibilities of a shepherd apply toward both?

6. See Jesus’ words in John 10:16. What do these words mean? How might this relate to what the Apostle Paul wrote in Ephesians 2:11–22. What are practical implications and ramifications for this “one flock” (John 10:16)? How about for New Hope Church?

ACTION
7. When you are in painful seasons, how do the promise of Isaiah 40:11 prove helpful to you?

8. How could you share the gospel with a friend using Psalm 23:1–3 as your foundation?
