NEWS & GIVING REPORT

Everyday Catalysts: Character Stories from Acts

June 19–August 7. This summer, we'll look at some everyday women and men doing everyday things that were incredibly significant in spreading the good news. See how prayer, generosity, breaking down barriers, teaching, hospitality and acts of courage have a ripple effect—even to our cities and world today. Watch at newhopechurchmn.org/messages.

Men's BBQ

Sunday, June 26, 12–1:30pm, Family Center. Learn what's planned for the upcoming Men's Ministry year while we eat good food, hear from a great speaker, laugh and play some games. Register by June 19 at newhopechurchmn.org/men.

Ways to Give

Thank you for your generous giving to New Hope Church. You can give through the NHC App, by check or online at newhopechurchmn.org/give.

Hope Kids Day Camp

July 18–21, 9–11:30am. Make Waves. Catch the wave as we join in amazing worship, play games, make crazy crafts and learn the Word of God and the ripples that wave leaves. For age 4–grade 5. Cost: $25/child. Register by June 30 or sign up to volunteer at newhopechurchmn.org/daycamp.

Community Partner: New Life Family Services

New Life Family Services is in need of volunteer parenting coaches to serve clients in their Every Family parenting program. If you're interested in supporting parents in our community or have questions, email Traci Berry at volunteer@nlfs.org.

THE WAY, THE TRUTH & THE LIFE John 14:6

CONNECT

1. How do you process the suggestion that the only way to eternal life (heaven) is through Jesus and nothing else?

GOING DEEPER

2. John 13:33 reveals that Jesus would be leaving His disciples and they wouldn't be able to follow Him. What might this imply and why does it frustrate Peter (John 13:36–37)?
3. What expectations regarding following Jesus do you have that get foiled by Jesus' unique demands? See Luke 9:23–26 for additional insight.
4. Consider John 14:1–3. When life is painful, grievous or our expectations are simply not well met, how might Jesus' words prove hopeful and helpful? What details in these verses stand out to you as particularly intriguing or meaningful?
5. John 14:4 finds Jesus suggesting the disciples should understand what He's talking about but, according to verse 5, Thomas is not so sure. How willing are you to be that honest with Jesus?
6. Carefully review John 14:6. How does Jesus embody for us the three key pieces—the way, the truth and the life? See 1 John 5:20.

ACTION

7. Among the pieces embedded within John 14:6 is a claim by Jesus that He alone is the means by which one has access to the Father (the Father's home, heaven/eternal life). 1 Timothy 2:5 and Acts 4:12 reinforce this truth. How might you gently advocate for this in a world inclined to imagine many ways to God?
8. How could you share the gospel with a friend using John 14:6 as your foundation?
