DISCUSSION GUIDE

July 31, 2022

APOLLOS Acts 18:24–28

CONNECT

1. Who has been one of the biggest catalysts in your faith and growth in Christ? In what areas did they help you gain a better understanding?

GOING DEEPER

2. Read Acts 18:24–28. What do we learn about Apollos from verses 24–25? List some characteristics.
3. If Apollos' understanding of God's work was limited to John the Baptist's teaching, what was missing from his knowledge of Jesus and Christianity?
4. Did Apollos share what he knew or wait until he knew more? How is the temptation to wait until "we know enough" or the "conditions are right" prevent us from being an everyday catalyst?
5. Read Acts 18:26. Earlier Apollos spoke and taught "accurately" the things concerning Jesus (v.25), but here we see Priscilla and Aquila explain to him the way of God "more accurately." What key truths about Jesus would have been included in their teaching?
6. What does Apollos' response to their correction say about his character? How do you respond to the correction from others? Why is growth in understanding Christianity a lifelong journey?
7. What lessons can we learn from Priscilla and Aquila's investment in Apollos' life? How can you invest in or disciple someone in your life?
8. Read Acts 18:27–28. How did Apollos, with the help of others, impact the believing community in Achaia and furthered the gospel? What does this say about Christian community?
9. Read 1 Corinthians 16:12 and Titus 3:13. How does Paul's final remarks in these letters speak to Apollos' contribution to the gospel and his ministry? In what ways can you be an everyday catalyst who "greatly helps those with grace" (Acts 18:27)?

ACTION

10. We often feel that we don't know enough. How does Apollos' example encourage us? Share ways you can personally imitate his behavior this week.
11. Who in your life is most curious about Christianity? Why is it challenging to engage them in conversations about faith? How can you be an everyday catalyst in their life?
