WALK WITH JESUS Colossians 2:6–7

CONNECT

1. When was the last time you felt truly rested—at peace, relaxed, calm, refreshed? How does that compare to your experience of life today?

GOING DEEPER

~~BDGBORVDDWOREBZLGRMHFLMKULWHFXRUGLHEDUHRMDODWLRURU\~~

If you've never knelt before Jesus to accept Him as your Lord and king, do so today!

3. What does it mean to "walk in Him" as we received Jesus? If we're walking in Jesus as we received Him, how should we be living?
4. To receive someone as your Lord, you must yield to them. How does yielding to Jesus make life simpler? How does it ground you? (See Matthew 11:28–30).
5. At the end of the service, we took communion, remembering Jesus. What do we remember in communion? Why did Jesus give this meal of remembrance to us? What do we risk if we neglect it?

ACTION

6. How can we encourage each other to walk in Christ in a way that is encouraging and edifying, rather than guilt-inducing and shaming? How did Jesus encourage people to walk like Him?
7. Write out Colossians 2:6–7 and put it somewhere you'll see. Pray through it every morning for the next two weeks. Pay attention to how God works through these prayers each day.
